Opening remarks from the Baron and Baroness

Greetings, Gentles

It looks as if things are starting to slowly thaw as we head toward Spring. There are a lot of things approaching that we should be thinking about. On the event calendar there's Bacon Wars, Defending the Gate and Spring Coronation coming up this month. Would someone like to coordinate a gift basket to present to our new royals? We should start discussing who could take the baronial pavilion to these events as well. Also, a dayboard – do we want one and who would like to coordinate one? We also will be hosting Spring Crown Tournament in May (see Rhiannon to volunteer to help. Also, recommend folks for awards). And then there's Ruby Joust later in May. It's a great camping event.

You may also have some projects to do this Spring for your tent or your campsite. We need someone to coordinate a cleaning day for the big baronial pavilion canvas along with checking out all the poles and making any repairs that are needed. That would be the most important project for the barony. But I'm sure there are others. We are looking at a busy Spring. Many hands make light work (and makes for more fun). We look forward to experiencing it with all of you.

Baron Jean Maurice and Baroness Catalina

P.S. Don't forget that you can submit award recommendations at any time. Even if you don't know what award to recommend someone for, just let us know what you've seen them doing.
